Thirteen Republican Senators lined up with the Democrats to make Miss Perkins on Pauling, Davenport, Powler, Graves, Law, Lockwood, Mullan, Sage, G. L. Thompson and Whitley. The vote was 24 to 16.

The Senate debated the Perkins nomination for almost three hours before voting on it. During the debate Genator J. Henry Walters, the, Republican leader, drew from Senator James A. Foley, Democratic leader, an admission that Miss Perkins is a Democrat. Then he predicted that although the law provides that not more than three members of the same political party shall be on the same commission, the Senate will get the nomination of another Democrat from the Governor within a year.

Special Despatch to THE SUN.

ALEANY, Feb. 18.—Gov. Smith issued to-night a Washington's Birthday proclamation urging that wherever the people of this State assemble to celebrate the event, whether at public gatherings in schools, in churches or in synagogues, "by resolution and address they shall set forth the faith of the people of the State of New York in the President of the United States in his efforts to form a league of free nations which shall safeguard our victory and bring us lasting peace.

"This year the nation enters upon a new course as significant as that upon which it entered 129 years ago. It is fitting that all abould know, understand and acclaim this great undertaking and the leadership of the President of the United States in the endeavor to crown the victory of arms with the accomplishment of a rule of reason and law as opposed to that of force in the conduct of international relations."
